Recycle your paint!

Besides purchasing paint, the agreement allows Porter County residents to recycle their old latex paint at the City of Hobart's Department of Public Works. Oil-based paint will not be accepted, neither will latex paint generated by businesses.

Latex paint will also be accepted at Porter County household hazardous waste events. Further information on these collection events is available on the district's website, www.PorterCountyRecycling.org, or by calling 465-3694.
