Old Business:

Update on the maintenance/improvement on community meeting room.

Bids were received on the roof from three companies; Turnak Roofing, Korellis Roofing and from EC Babilla Roofing. EC Babilla came back with the lowest bid of $31,000. President Gregory announced that the roof would be done first. Councilman Kurtz said that the roof flooded on the last storm. After Wednesday November 9th there will be no more activities until the December meeting.

Deer Management Plan:

Chief Reeder was asked to explain the plan. There was a meeting between the shooters, Chief Reeder and President Gregory. The marksmen are Roger Getz and Harry Connley. Bittersweet Park and Serenity Park were chosen because of the safety and there are a lot of deer in both.

Councilman Wood asked if the shooters will provide the firearms. Chief Reeder replied yes.

President Gregory asked if they will haul them away and would the meat be available? Chief Reeder replied yes. He also said that there will be reserve officers available a half hour before sunrise and a half hour after sunset.

Councilwomen Collins asked if there were insurance concerns, and was told that the insurance company asked questions and was satisfied.

Councilman Kurtz asked about the amendment to the town code and the first reading of the ordinance.

President Gregory said he wanted to hold off on the ordinance and move on to resident remarks.

Resident remarks:

Dona Young, of 109 Ogden Road, the survey was against a deer cull so why are we doing it?

President Gregory replied, because of the increased amount of residents who have gotten Lyme disease.

Councilman Kurtz also responded to this.

Cordelia Swanson 41 Aspen, spoke on the meeting that was at the church on the black legged tick.

Jim Pleka 126 Diana, he would vote against, and the problem is the mouse. You are pushing this off on to the minority not the majority. Kill the white mice. Use your head and get rid of the mouse.

President Gregory during the reading suggested during the time period between the Town Council meeting and the DNR comment on the language.

Councilman Kurtz introduced and read Ordinance 756 in toto and said it shall be adopted on the second reading, specific date range references should be eliminated..

President Gregory said the language will change from the first reading.

Councilman Haussman asked about the number of residents that responded to the survey.

Councilwoman Collins replied that she did not remember.

Dona Young, 109 Ogden, said that the language is very misleading.

President Gregory said that this is only the first reading. The language will be revised and posted.

New Business:

Adoption of the 2012 budget will be done on the October 24th meeting. It will be ordinance #755.

President Gregory said he would not be at that meeting.
