This matter is on hold for now.
- C) Other
None.

9. New Business

A) Capital Expenditures (subgroup)

B) Master plan

There is a group that works along the great lakes that may be able to assist the Town with the portion of the Master Plan relating to the beach area.

Discussions continue on the priority of the Master Plan. A number of ideas are in the works including a pavilion at Kratz Park, Long Lake Park, refacing the fire department, and other items.

There are some improvement projects the town is getting pricing on to see what could be completed before our centennial.

C) Improving information to residents

D) Other

Review of Rules and Procedures and the jurisdiction for the town code and state statute.

The Plan Commission and BZA are going to review our current rules of procedure and compare it with what the state statute requires. Then recreate or clarify what each group wants to see.
